excerpt from the quest of columbus a memorial poem in twelve the quest of columbus is intended to portray the almost superhuman endeavors of the world's greatest discoverer to realize his lofty goal and his final triumph over wellnigh insurmountable difficulties interwoven with this forever memorable quest of 1492 the other two remarkable events of the same year which concern the three great creeds are the siege and the fall of granada and the banishment of the jews from spain it is a well known fact that a stroke of the selfsame pen which decreed the doom of moorish dominion in iberia and the expulsion of the hebrews therefrom confirmed the titles of christopher columbus as the prospective viceroy and admiral of their majesties of castile and aragon the verse of this work is pentameter the heroic couplet being a feature in the first four books the other eight are elaborated in the iambic quatrain varied here and there by the ottava rima a stanza favored by many british and foreign authors among them indorsed by dryden as the noblest in the anglo saxon idiom about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works winner of the state prize for poetry in cyprus these experimental linked poem threads move across time linking a young cyprriot to ancestors contemporaries and descendants through striking disparate polyphony in this bilingual collection of linked poems kefala creates a tapestry of motifs that transcend time and identity across early 20th century cyprus 16th century scotland a sailor on christopher columbus ship la pinta and more as the poem threads draw together it is as if the protagonist in his travels through the twentieth century encounters odysseus cervantes columbus rembrandt and others all moving in multidimensional synchronicity in this way the readers take part in the production of meaning by pulling the threads together stitching together their own reading of the story through the reading of these threads time remains fluid creating a masterful declaration about the function of poetry perhaps history is nothing more than the presence of innumerable human voices some more and some less powerful coexisting in an eternal present
