koselleck and ricoeur hartog analyzes a broad range of texts positioning the the odyssey as a work on the threshold of a historical consciousness and then contrasting it against an investigation of the anthropologist marshall sahlins's concept of 'heroic history' he tracks changing perspectives on time in ch teaubriand's historical essay and travels in america and sets them alongside other writings from the french revolution he revisits the insight of the french annals school and situates pierre nora's realms of memory within a history of heritage and our contemporary presentism our presentist present is by no means uniform or clear cut and it is experienced very differently depending on one's position in society there are flows and acceleration but also what the sociologist robert castel calls the 'status of casual workers' whose present is languishing before their very eyes and who have no past except in a complicated way especially in the case of immigrants exiles and migrants and no real future since the temporality of plans and projects is denied them presentism is therefore experienced as either emancipation or enclosure in some cases with ever greater speed and mobility and in others by living from hand to mouth in a stagnating present hartog also accounts for the fact that the future is perceived as a threat and not a promise we live in a time of catastrophe one he feels we have brought upon ourselves established in 1911 the rotarian is the official magazine of rotary international and is circulated worldwide each issue contains feature the third republic from the 1870s through the early 1900s she demonstrates convincingly how music whether new old popular or élite whether performed at institutions of state such as the opéra the folies bergère concert halls or the zoo helped to redefine what it meant to be french under evolving political circumstances equally adept in the languages of history sociology political science reception history and music analysis pasler establishes music s cultural significance and implicitly illuminates the role it can still play in countries like the united states philip gossett the university of chicago and university of rome la sapienza composing the citizen offers nothing less than a new paradigm for the study of musical cultures rather than forcing french music into the moulds developed for the austro german canon pasler simply studies the social uses of music in fin de siècle france her painstaking archival research allows her to present an astonishingly detailed account of musical practices tastes and activities new names and genres come to the fore to engage in a variety of dynamic artistic scenes most of us never knew or only thought we did by virtue of
