carefully reviewed and selected from 20 submissions in addition 10 short papers are included the workshop applied a thorough reviewing process during which each paper was reviewed by three program committee members the bpmn workshop series provides a forum for academics and practitioners who share an interest in business process modeling using the business process modeling notation which is seen by many as the de facto standard for business process modeling this year the workshop lasted two days and consisted of both a scientific and a practitioner event chronicles of a biker is a compilation of anecdotes which shaun donovan wrote during his 12 years of riding and racing motor cycles between 1975 and 1987 now in 2012 some 36 years after writing his first memoirs of a misspent youth shaun has encapsulated dozens of these truly memorable and remarkable and in some cases unbelievable stories into one book in the first few chapters read how shaun survives an onslaught of terrifying crashes each one leaving him with several broken bones or huge chunks of flesh hanging from his battered body as he lives on to fight another day also included are the tales of his unlawful misdemeanours as he is continually chased and caught by the police culminating in several endorsements along with the loss of his driving licence on no fewer than two occasions the second half of the book is dedicated to three amazing journeys which he undertook between july 1981 and august 1983 spanning a distance of nearly 15 000km on the road and a further 2 000 nautical miles on ferries shaun traverses 13 countries 1 principality and several islands in western europe before crossing continents into north africa to say his first hello to the countries of morocco and tunisia apart from crashing in spain dodging psychopathic drivers in italy and having to put up with various punctures and breakdowns shaun has a whale of a time with various friends and partners as he crosses the pyrenees mountains glides over the austrian alps and blasts his way up and down the motorways of western europe discovering a handful of paradise beaches dozens of quaint little villages and several wonders of the world before his triple adventure is finally at an end just like shauns first two books battle of the greyhounds part i america and battle of the greyhounds part ii australia which tell the stories of his epic journeys as he circumnavigates these vast continents by greyhound bus shaun writes every biking tale with such conviction and an unprecedented passion that one could truly believe they were riding pillionpassenger with him from start to finish graham hutchins fell in love with trains at an early age as a youngster growing up in the railway town of te kuiti he would gaze on the steaming monsters as they thundered through the king country before long train travel became more than a pastime more than a fascination he was hooked as he recounts in this book he was just ten years old when he undertook a journey alone on the night train to auckland from then on he travelled as much as he could and later as a young man searched out the smaller forgotten lines to experience what they had to offer stop the train i want to get on describes his experiences travelling throughout new zealand on regular passenger trains railcars goods trains and work trains the routes he traverses include the central otago line the gisborne railcar the southerner to invercargill a mixed train through rural taranaki a workers train from greymouth on the rewanui incline the endeavour to hawke s bay the silver fern railcar and more many services have now been axed but he vividly recalls their delights from the scenery outside to the often primitive conditions inside and the people he encounters along the way he also tells many engaging tales about the history of the lines and what makes each so distinctive sometimes alone on other occasions with his wife jenny or his mate russell he conveys the unique experience and sheer pleasure of rail travel in every corner of new zealand from the 1950s to the present day some people take to the bottle others go shopping i jump on a train if i can find one and wait for the swish and sway to take me away away from the down times for me the diversion comes as much from the rhythm as the passing landscapes from the train window graham hutchins remembers the incredibly varied journeys he has taken by train throughout new zealand they have given him a lifetime of pleasure night trains and the northerner the midland line christchurch to the west coast the gisborne railcar the central otago line alexandra to dunedin the picton christchurch railcar the silver star auckland to wellington greymouth to rewanui and back by mixed train on the stratford to okahukura line hamilton to mount maunganui the silver fern railcar on the main trunk line the endeavour wellington to napier the southerner christchurch to invercargill the northern explorer the similars a novel by thani naqo the events of this fiction like novel take place in the southern united states an albanian young man nicknamed chaplin has entered the united
